There is a sure cure for the "blues" and a tonic for the dyspeptics in every line of James Forbes' comedy of "The Chorus Lady," to be presented, under the management of Henry B. Harris, at the Salt Lake theatre tonight. With the Fresistible Rose Stahl making her for Patricia O'Brien.

There is an absorbing the disagreeable role pleasantly and deserves much credit. Her song, "I Like Someone to Love Me," featured with the chorus, is one of the hits of the play.

Carlton Chase had two singing nummers, his duet with Miss Beatty and the charming Scotch song, "I Love a Lassie," in which there is a dancing turn that is almost as well received as the vocal work. Other songs by the comedians complete the musical program, which is unusually attractive this week.

There is an absorbing story of love and pathos which deals with the race track and the under side of a great city, which falls naturally into the experiences of the typical actress who lives life to its fullest and yet has the moral sense to distinguish right from wrong.

MAX FIGMAN COMING.

Ed C. McDowell, whose face has become quite familiar in Salt Lake by reason that he brings a high class theatrical attraction to a theatre in this city each year, is here again. This time he is ahead of Max Figman, who will appear at the Colonial theatre, next week, in "Mary Jane's Pa." Last season when Mr. McDowell was here he had "Brewster's Millions" in tow.
